Mid Penn Swim League All-Star Championships July 25, 2004

- Safety: Each team must provide adult supervision for their team during the meet. A swimmer could be disqualified for flagrant disregard of procedures.
- Volunteers: Everyone's help is needed to run an efficient meet. Please check the time's schedule included with this packet. Your team is responsible for having the required number of timers indicated on the schedule. On-deck officials should wear white and have Mid-Penn or CPAL Certification patches visible. Each team attending should have at least one official available to help during the meet. FREE ADMISSION AND HOSPITALITY FOR ALL VOLUNTEERS. We are not requiring teams to provide names at this time. There will be timer tags and official tags at the Volunteer entrance where they will need to sign in. Please inform your team volunteers to pick up their tag during warm-ups so schedules (with names) can be completed. Once all positions for your team are filled we will take names for alternates but free admission and hospitality vouchers will not be given unless they are called.
- Admission: $2 Admission Fee and $3 for a program
- Meet Results: Final results will be posted on Hershey Aquatic Club's website www.hacswim.org and Mid-Penn's website www.swimmpsl.org
Any team desiring a results file must provide a disk.
- Food/Drink: Refreshments for spectators will be available throughout the meet.
- Swim Shop: T&T Swimming will offer a large selection of swimming apparel and training equipment.
- Team Tents: Teams may bring team tents for set up on Saturday night between 8:00 PM and 9:00 PM.
